SOCIAL SCIENCE FORUM

"THE NEW SOUTH" provided the topic for the fourteenth annual Harriet Elliott Social Science Forum. It was efficiently planned by a committee of faculty and students to serve as a stimulation to the American public in matters of international and national importance. Speakers who are experts in this subject offered their analyzations during forums and informal panels.

from a rural society to a rapidly unchanging one.

Concerning the speakers, we know that they were well-informed in their various fields; however, the delivery of some of them was not equal to their knowledge. In view of the fact that this letter was written before the final session of the Forum, we realize that this evening's distinguished speaker might invalidate some of these points.

In general we feel that this Forum has been a rewarding experience and that all fields of social science have been well represented.

Dear Editor:

tion the hours, days, and weeks of hard work that go into putting a show of the magnitude of "So Pacific" before our capacity is tested for our concentration. Instead of going to a performance with the attitude of "How much can I find wrong?" it is not possible, even considering it is not one's duty to attend any of the rehearsals or to go any more than one of the performances, that one could view the production with the thought in mind that it is not being presented by an experienced troupe of professionals, but rather, by a group of college students and men from the vicinity of Greensboro who have occupations for eight hours a day other than singing and acting, for which they rehearsed almost every one of the evenings for a month.

David Potter
David Potter Speaks On Changing South

"What is going to happen in the South in regard to itself and to the nation as a whole is much more important than what makes the South distinctive," asserted Dr. Potter in an interview following his address Wednesday night in Avesock Auditorium.

Dr. Potter pointed out that the South is changing and many aspects of its life which were once true are no longer so. He explained, "The physical forces which came inside the South district are not so important now as they once were. There are more and larger cities, the Negro is no longer a cotton cultivator, and the plantation tradition has become a mere sentiment."

The racial barrier is not as sharp today as it was because the forces which caused it have been eliminated or minimized. "Pea-

OF NURSING

"When making a bed, bend your knees, not your back" ... the day uniforms arrived ... two days a week at Cone ... first day at hospital ... green scrub dresses ... Christmas caroling ... Durham convention ... graduation in October

Working in pediatrics is one of the most rewarding experiences in the Nursing Educational program.

Nursing students spend many hours at Cone Hospital.

The right way is the best way.

Compromise?

OF 1963

Wonder what prof has attracted Lyn's attention?

Class jackets ... no lights out ... realization of being an upperclassman ... rat day as fun day ... the joys of United States History ... dreams of transferring to Chapel Hill ...
yet loyal we remain and purpose comes into view

"The British are coming!"

I'd do anything to get in Mr. Jones' class!

Is this one of those new-fangled abstracts?

Food for thought?

Good morning, Rats!

Rat Day is fun — for Sophomores.

Cindy and Juniors help their "Freshman Sisters."

Hannah, Cissie, Peggy — Junior Show's a hit! Thanks.

OF 1962

Say you're "taking" the laundry to the basement?

One more meaningful year... class rings, the Junior Show, a diamond... at last our purpose is made manifest... the reasons for—are righted... we stand on the threshold of insecurity—independence.

A different hand, a different finger
but still it's our ring.

We do too study!

Artist? No, just 101!

Jane seems to have all the attention.

JUNIOR HOUSE PRESIDENTS

THE DUTY OF THE Junior House Presidents and Counselors, together with her house officers, is to be responsible for the administration of the house.

Junior House Presidents are elected each spring from the rising Junior Class. It is their task to offer sympathy and understanding to their Freshman charges. The House Counselor does much to make a dreary dorm more homelike.

SENIOR HOUSE PRESIDENTS

THE UPPERCLASSMAN house requires less individual guidance and attention than the freshman houses, but the president and counselors of these dormitories have a great responsibility that they perform lovingly and diligently. They must direct, instruct, and reprimand. They are the Chiefs of the Tribes who must show by their leadership the manner in which a citizen should conduct herself in a college or world community.

Many long hours have gone into making this a new, and we hope, enjoyable, edition of Pine Needles. THE 1961 Pine Needles has endeavored to portray that cross-section of humanity known as W.C. girls. A W.C. girl is a girl of many facets. She is ever searching for knowledge, leadership, identification, creativity, religion, and social success. We have shown the individual student in these various roles. These roles form the mold and make the Woman's College graduate the success she eventually becomes. A recent study based on a ten year period showed that W.C. graduates excel in a wide range of vocations. Among these are teachers, social workers, artists, chemists, secretaries, lawyers, nurses and graduate students. The largest per cent, 80 in fact, are homemakers and about half this group combine a career with marriage.

Woman's College draws students from all over the world and it is not uncommon to spot the familiar W.C. jacket or class ring anywhere U.S.A., from Up the Creek, N. C., to Nome, Alaska. In the preceding pages of the Pine Needles you have seen part of this representation of Americana from debutantes to just plain Jane. We hope you have enjoyed it and can appreciate our WOMAN'S WORLD in years to come.
